WALTER RIGGS 1896,99

Walter Riggs could easily be called the father of Clemson Football. He coached the football program at Clemson, not only because he had football experience, but he was also one of only two people on the Clemson campus to have ever seen a football game when the sport started in 1896. (The other person was Frank Thompkins who played in the backfield on Clemson's first team in 1896).

On Sept. 30, 1896, a small crowd gathered in one of the barracks' rooms and the group discussed the feasibility of organizing a football association. A committee of three was appointed to consult Professor Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

When the Tigers traveled to Furman for their first game on Oct. 31, 1896, it was the first time that many of the players had ever seen a full-sized regulation football field.

Riggs stepped down as football coach after the first season because the players wanted him to devote all his time to being a professor in the engineering department.

Riggs could easily be called a loyal man, as he answered the need of the Clemson football team again in 1899. The Clemson Athletic Association was low on money and could not afford to hire a coach. Therefore, he again answered the call of the school and became head coach in 1899 for free.

Riggs originally came to Clemson from Auburn. He graduated with top honors in 1893 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. At Auburn, he was captain and catcher of the baseball team as well as the manager and left end of the football team. He also served as class president and was the director of the Glee Club.

Upon his graduation at Auburn, he was assistant to the president of the college until 1896, then he made his trek to Clemson.

Riggs later became president of Clemson on March 7, 1911 and in 1915, a new football stadium with other athletic facilities was named in his honor as Riggs Field. It is currently the home of the Tiger soccer team. In two years of coaching, Riggs guided the Tigers to a career record of 6-3.

W.M. WILLIAMS 1897

Clemson's second coach, W.M. Williams, was a native of West Point, Ga. He played at Auburn on the teams of 1894, 1895 and 1896, under the coaching of John Heisman. He was considered the best blocking halfback in the south. Williams led Clemson to the state championship and to a 2-2 season. During his time as coach, Clemson played two games in three days. Clemson was victorious over the Charlotte Y on October 23, but lost to North Carolina 28-0 on October 25.

JOHN PENTON 1898

The Tigers' third coach, J.A. Penton of Alabama, was captain and starting guard on the University of Virginia teams of 1893, 1894 and 1895. He was captain of the '95 Virginia team that beat North Carolina to win the Championship of the South. Penton also played fullback at Auburn in '97 under John Heisman's coaching. Under Penton, Clemson won 55-0 over Bingham in its first home game, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every point after touchdown (11). In his only season at Clemson, Penton guided Clemson to a 3-1 record and the state title.

JOHN HEISMAN 1900-03

One of the most famous football coaches in the nation, John Heisman, coached at Clemson from 1900-03. He turned Clemson from virtually an unknown college to a southern powerhouse at the turn of the century. Heisman attended Brown University, taking the two-year law course offered at that time, and was a center on the football team. During the fall of 1889, he transferred to Penn. He lettered in football at both schools and graduated from Penn in 1893.

In the spring of 1894, Walter Riggs was a graduate manager for the football team at Auburn. It fell on his shoulders to find a coach for the season of 1895. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams, the Penn captain of 1894, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Penn player, and his coach at Oberlin.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was raising tomatoes. Having sunk all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to return to his old love. He readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year.

His coaching career began at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years. It included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

John Heisman invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass, arguing that it would scatter the mob. Heisman also originated the center snap and the word hike (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman guided Clemson to conference titles in 1900 and 1902, and he led the Tigers to their first unofficial "bowl game" in 1903, when Clemson and Cumberland met on November 26 for the "Championship of the South." Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. The game was played on a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. After the news got back to Clemson that the game was a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Overall, Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Clemson baseball coach from 1901-03.

SHACK SHEALY 1904

Shack Shealy holds the distinction of being the only Tiger to have coached his alma mater. He lettered at Clemson from 1896-99 and later played two years at Iowa State. Shealy was a four-year starter playing right guard, end and in his senior year, he played in the backfield. He only coached Clemson one year (1904) and led the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record, including wins over Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

EDDIE COCHEMS 1905

Ed Cochems lettered at Wisconsin in 1899, 1900 and 1901. He was described as a great halfback or end on the strong Wisconsin teams at the turn of the century, including the 1901 undefeated team. In his playing career, he had a 100-yard kickoff return in a 35-0 win over Chicago in 1901, and had four touchdowns against Notre Dame in 1900. After his playing days, he immediately went into coaching. He was the head coach of North Dakota in 1902 and 1903 and served briefly as an assistant with former teammate, Art Curtis at Wisconsin in 1904.

Cochems led Clemson to a 3-2-1 record overall, including wins over Georgia and Auburn. After his Clemson career, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Louis in 1906. After the forward pass was legalized in 1906, Cochems did something with the pass at once in his first year at St. Louis, while other coaches stuck with the running game. He taught his players not to throw the ball end-over-end, but instead like a projectile - a spiral. He called this new weapon a projectile pass.

Historians credit Cochems as being the first coach to use and perfect the first legal pass in a game. The first studied refinements in throwing the ball, which led to the spiral, occurred in 1906 under Cochems. Brad Robinson of St. Louis threw the first forward pass to Jack Schneider on Sept. 5, 1906 in Waukensha against Carroll.

BOB WILLIAMS 1906,09,13-15,26

Bob Williams is one of the few coaches in the nation to have coached football at two rivals. Williams coached football at both Clemson and South Carolina. Before coming to Clemson, he coached at Davidson in 1905. He coached at South Carolina for two years and guided the Gamecocks to a 6-1 record in 1902 and an 8-2 slate in 1903.

In his career at South Carolina, he administered the most unexpected defeat of Clemson, as he beat a heavily favored Heisman team, 12-6 in 1902.

He served the Tigers as head coach a total of four terms (1906,09,13-15,26). Between 1915-26, Williams practiced law in Roanoke, Va. and was the city's mayor.

One of the highlights of his coaching career included leading the 1906 team to an unbeaten season (4-0-3), which included wins over Georgia, Auburn, Tennessee and a Heisman-coached Georgia Tech squad.

FRANK SHAUGHNESSY 1907

Frank Shaughnessy was known for his ability as a sports administrator. He served many positions, from a pro hockey coach to the International Baseball League Commissioner. A graduate in pharmacy at Notre Dame, he was captain of the baseball and football teams during his senior season. After his graduation in 1905, he coached baseball at Notre Dame. The summer before coming to Clemson, he played for Ottawa of the Eastern League. That summer, he played left field and ended the season with a .352 batting average. He played nine MLB games in 1905 and 1908 with Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics.

At Clemson, he coached the baseball teams during 1907 and 1908, and he was head football mentor in 1907, where he posted a 4-4 record.

Shaughnessy made his name in baseball, but he took part in many other sports. Besides being a sports legend at Notre Dame, he managed the NHL's Ottawa Senators to the 1915 Stanley Cup Finals and coached football teams at Clemson, Washington and Lee, and McGill. He retired as the president of the International Baseball league in 1960.

In a game against Kansas, Shaughnessy ran 107 yards for the only Irish score, as Kansas won the game 24-5. Football fields were 110 yards back then and touchdowns were five points. Shaughnessy passed away in 1969.

JOHN STONE 1908

John Stone is one of three coaches who graduated from Vanderbilt and later became head football coach at Clemson. While at Vanderbilt, he was a member of the All-Southern Football team for four years. He was a big man for his time, standing 6'2". Clemson was 1-6 in 1908, but the Tigers lost many of their star players and substitutes from 1907 due to a college prank that saw 306 students expelled.

FRANK DOBSON 1910-12

Frank Dobson was a pro baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. He offered Dobson a three-year contract, which was the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach.

At Clemson, he coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading it to its only undefeated season (4-0) in history in the inaugural season (1911-12). In 1912-13, Clemson had a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach from 1911-13.

WAYNE HART 1916

Wayne Hart served as head coach at Clemson in 1916 and coached the Tigers to a 3-6 record. Under Hart, the Tigers defeated Furman and South Carolina. He played three seasons at tackle for

FORMER HEAD COACHES

Georgetown. Hart also played one season at George Washington. He was a member of the All-South Atlantic team on four occasions. Hart also served as an assistant coach at Georgetown.

In 1913, Hart coached the Washington Vigilants, a professional football team, and did not lose a single contest. During his last two seasons prior to his arrival to Clemson, he coached various sports at Technical High School in Washington, D.C.

EDWARD DONAHUE

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 academic year, Donahue was the head coach of four Clemson sports... football, basketball, baseball and track. During his four-year career, he served as basketball and baseball coach for two years and head track coach for one season.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington and Lee, where he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball diamond. Upon graduation, he was an assistant in football and was the head baseball and basketball coach.

E.J. STEWART

1921,22

E.J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. During the fall, Stewart's football team had a 1-6-2 record, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

Stewart was a standout athlete in football, baseball, basketball and track at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Upon his graduation, Stewart played, organized and served as head coach of the Massillon (Ohio) professional football team.

Stewart also coached at Nebraska and Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916 and 1917. The Cornhuskers also captured the Missouri Valley Conference title during both seasons. After leaving Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Due to the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

BUD SAUNDERS

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911 with a bachelor's degree in law. At Missouri, he played both football and basketball. Saunders wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule forbid a student-athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders served as football coach at Knox College before arriving at Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons from 1923-26. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. Saunders' best season in football came during the 1923 campaign, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 record.

JOSH CODY

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two seasons who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and posted a 72-percent winning mark overall, the fourth-best mark in Clemson history.

After a 5-3-1 start in the 1927 season, Cody guided the Tigers to back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 1928 and 1929. On May 6, 1929, to show appreciation, Cody was given a new Buick by the alumni, student body and faculty.

In his final season (1930), the Tigers finished with a record of 8-2. Cody also coached basketball at Clemson for five seasons and guided Clemson to a 16-9 slate in 1930. During the 1928-30 seasons, he guided Clemson to a 22-4 mark at home. Cody went on to coach Temple's men's basketball team from 1942-52. He took the Owls to their first NCAA Tournament in 1944.

JESS NEELY

1931-39

Clemson played in its first bowl game under Jess Neely in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The Tigers, unknown at the time, became a household word after defeating heavily-favored Boston College 6-3 in the Cotton Bowl. It was the Tigers' first victory over a top-20 ranked team in school history. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely came to Clemson in 1931 and his recruitment of Banks McFadden took Clemson to another level. In 1938, Neely coached Clemson to a second-place finish in the Southern Conference with a 7-1-1 record.

In 1939, Banks McFadden became Clemson's second All-American, and the team concluded the season with a trip to Dallas for the Cotton Bowl. Neely left Clemson in January 1940 and moved on to Rice, where he took that school to new heights. Neely is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Neely's landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to Clemson's outstanding football tradition.

FRANK HOWARD

1940-69

Frank Howard succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 when Neely moved on to Rice. He got the job when he seconded his own nomination during a meeting of the president and athletic council. He signed a one-year contract, then lost the document and never had another in his 30 years as head coach.

He graduated from Alabama in 1931, where he was a star lineman. He played in the 1930 Rose Bowl, then started his coaching career under Neely at Clemson in 1931, and was a part of a rebirth of Tiger football in the late 1930s. He was an assistant on the 1939 team that posted a 9-1 mark and beat Boston College 6-3 in the Tigers' first bowl game.

In 1940, he began his head coaching career with a bang as he won the Southern Conference title, the first of eight conference titles that Howard won in his coaching career, a feat that wouldn't be matched at Clemson until Dabo Swinney's eighth conference crown in 2022.

Howard had his most successful season in 1948 when he took Clemson to an 11-0 record, the Tigers' first perfect season since 1900. The campaign included a Southern Conference championship, a Gator Bowl win over Missouri and a No. 11 final ranking. He nearly duplicated the feat in 1950 when he guided Clemson to a No. 10 AP final ranking, a 9-0-1 finish and a 15-14 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl.

When he retired in 1969, Howard was the fifth-winningest coach in the nation with 165 victories, quite an accomplishment considering only 38 percent of his games were at home. He had 96 wins as an ACC coach and captured six (five outright and one co-championship) ACC titles, a record Bobby Bowden broke in 1998. Howard's teams appeared in six bowl games, 63 of his players were drafted by the NFL, and 37 played in the league.

Howard, a native of Barlow Bend, Ala., had six top-20 seasons, won eight conference titles (two Southern, six ACC), won 100 conference games and was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year. He coached 25 All-ACC Academic selections and six Academic All-Americans. Eleven of his players were chosen on-the-field All-Americans. Howard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994.

HOOTIE INGRAM

Hootie Ingram will be best remembered as the coach who made the Tiger Paw famous. Before his first year as head coach in 1970, Clemson introduced the Tiger Paw as the official logo of Clemson University's Athletic teams.

Ingram graduated from Alabama in 1955. He also received his master's degree in school administration from Alabama and later became Crimson Tide athletic director. The native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was an All-SEC defensive back for the Crimson Tide as a senior. He had his best season (5-6) at Clemson in 1971. He also finished second in the ACC standings with a 4-2 league mark in 1971. He was later inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

RED PARKER

1973-76

Red Parker spent four years at Clemson as head coach. His 1974 squad lived up to the theme "Excitement Galore, Clemson Football '74" and had a 7-4 record, with victories over Georgia, Georgia Tech and South Carolina. Before arriving in Tiger-town, Parker spent seven years (1966-72) as head coach at The Citadel. He guided the Bulldogs to a 8-3 record during in the 1971 campaign.

Parker earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arkansas A&M in 1953. He earned three letters each in football, basketball and track, as a running back/defensive back, second baseman/shortstop and sprinter. He later served as head coach at Harmony Grove High School in Arkansas. He died Jan. 4, 2016.

CHARLEY PELL

Charley Pell, who was Clemson's head coach in 1977,78 authored college football's Cinderella story in 1977. The Albertville, Ala. product took a team that was 3-6-2 in 1976, and led the 1977 Tigers to an 8-2-1 regular-season mark and a berth in the Gator Bowl. It was Clemson's first final top-20 season since 1959. He coached Clemson to a 10-1 regular season in the 1978 season before he left to become head coach at Florida. Clemson's 1978 team beat Ohio State in the Gator Bowl and finished ranked No. 6 in the AP poll in his second year as Clemson's head coach.

He was a near unanimous choice as ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, the first coach, regardless of sport, to win ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in each of his first two years. A two-way starter and three-year letterwinner at Alabama, Pell was on its 1961 national championship team.

He came to Clemson in 1976 and served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Pell passed away in June 2001 after battling cancer.

DANNY FORD

Danny Ford had an auspicious beginning to his head coaching career. He gained a 17-15 win over Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl. The 30-year-old coach, the youngest in Division I at the time, also defeated a college football legend in a contest that put Clemson on the national map, as he defeated Woody Hayes in the latter's last game. He had taken over the coaching reigns on Dec. 10, 1978 when Charley Pell resigned to become head coach at Florida.

Ford kept things going in 1979 with wins over Georgia and Notre Dame and another trip to a bowl (Peach). In 1981, he helped Clemson reach the summit of college football by winning the national title. His Tigers downed three top-10 teams during the course of the 12-0 season that concluded with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Ford was named National Coach-of-the-Year.

The wins continued in 1982 and 1983, as Clemson had consecutive 9-1-1 years. Clemson finished in the top 12 in both years, and had a 30-2-2 record over a three-year period, best in the nation.

Clemson won three straight ACC titles under his guidance between 1986-88. In 1989, Clemson registered a 10-2 season and top 12 national ranking, the fourth straight season Clemson finished in the final AP top 20. He closed his career with a 27-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, his sixth bowl win in eight tries and his fourth in succession.

Ford was the third winningest active coach in the nation on a percentage basis at the end of the 1989 season. He finished with a 96-29-4 career ledger at Clemson. Ford finished his Tiger career with a 76-percent winning percentage and five ACC championships.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is still the youngest coach to win the national title, as he was just 33-years-old when the Tigers shocked the college football world in 1981. He coached 71 First-Team All-ACC selections and 26 All-Americans. Forty-two of his former Tigers were drafted by the NFL, and he earned 18 wins over AP top-20 teams during his career. Additionally, 11 of his former players won Super Bowl championship rings. At one stretch, his teams were ranked in the AP top 20 for 41 straight polls, a Tiger record. He had a 31-13-1 record against 15 coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

Ford is a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame and the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Ford was an All-SEC pick and All-SEC Academic choice at Alabama. He attended Alabama initially on a basketball/football scholarship, but he only played football after his freshman season. Ford played in three bowl games for the Crimson Tide. He later served as head coach at Arkansas from 1994-97. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor on Aug. 31, 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

KEN HATFIELD

Ken Hatfield led the Tigers to a 32-13-1 record during his four-year tenure, led the squad to three bowl appearances and an ACC championship. With a victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl, Hatfield became the first Clemson coach to win 10 games in his first year and his .833 winning percentage was the best for a first-year Clemson coach since 1900, when John Heisman was 6-0. That season included six victories over teams with winning records, more than any other team that year with the exception of National Champion Georgia Tech.

Hatfield was also just the eighth coach in the previous 13 years to take a team to a top-10 AP final ranking in his first year with the program, as the Tigers finished the year No. 9 in the AP poll. The Helena, Ark. native would also lead the 1991 and 1993 Tiger teams to top 25-rankings. Clemson became the third school that Hatfield coached to a top-20 ranking, as his 1983 Air Force team ranked No. 15 and he led four Arkansas teams to top-20 rankings. He became the sixth coach in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Hatfield played for three years at Arkansas (1962-64) and was a starter on the 1964 National Championship team. The defensive back earned his fame as the nation's top punt returner in 1963 and 1964. He was the first player to finish in the top two in the nation in punt returns three straight years, as he finished second in 1962. He retired as Rice's head coach in 2005 with 168 career wins. He is now retired and living in Arkansas.

TOMMY WEST

Tommy West's five-year resumé as Clemson head coach included four bowl appearances, 12 road victories, 86 school records and previously unparalleled academic excellence. West took Clemson to three straight bowl games between the 1995 and 1997 seasons, just the second Clemson coach in history to take the Tigers to bowl games in three straight seasons.

Academically, 61 Tigers made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in his last four years, twice as many as the best previous four-year total in school history.

West took over as head coach on Nov. 29, 1993 and less than a month later had a bowl victory. The former Tennessee tight end succeeded Ken Hatfield, who left four days after a victory over South Carolina to end the 1993 season.

It was West's second tour of duty with Clemson. He had been a linebackers coach under Danny Ford between 1982-89. Clemson was 69-20-4 and had six AP top 20 finishes in that eight-year era.

West coached the Tigers in the 1993 Peach Bowl, a thrilling 14-13 win over Kentucky. He became the first coach in college history to win a bowl game in his first game without having coached the team in any capacity earlier in the year.

West's best season was 1995, as Clemson finished the regular season with five straight victories by 17 points or more and was invited to the Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of every poll at the end of the 1995 regular season. That Clemson team also finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense.

West recruited some of the top players in Tiger history. The school was in the top 10 in the nation in NFL draftees during the 1998 and 1999 selection process, and all 11 players were recruited by West. The list included three first-round defensive picks (Trevor Pryce, Anthony Simmons, Antwan Edwards). Clemson was the only school in the nation to have six defensive players drafted in 1999 and the only school to have a first-round defensive pick in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

The native of Gainesville, Ga. finished his career with a 31-28 record and had four wins over top-25 teams. He was the head coach at Memphis from 2001-09 and he led the Tigers to a nine-win season and their first bowl appearance in 32 years in 2003. He took Memphis to five bowls, and he coached in nine bowl games as a head coach. West was the defensive coordinator at Southern Mississippi in 2012 and was an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee from 2014-23.

TOMMY BOWDEN

Tommy Bowden was a consistent winner over his nine-and-a-half years as Clemson's head coach. From 1999-08, he never had a losing season, and that included a streak of eight consecutive winning seasons from 2000-07. During those seasons, only four other Division I coaches had a winning season in all eight of those years with the same program.

Bowden was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, joining Frank Howard, Charley Pell and Danny Ford (and later Dabo Swinney) with that distinction. He first won the honor in 1999, his first year when he took over a team that had been 3-8 the previous season, to a 6-6 season against a top-10 schedule according to the Sagarin ratings. Clemson played three undefeated teams during the regular season (Marshall, Virginia Tech, Florida State).

His first year included a nationally-televised game against Florida State that featured the first-ever Division I coaching matchup of father and son. Bobby Bowden's Seminoles won that game by a score of 17-14, Florida State's closest game in an undefeated national championship season. The game attracted over 85,000 fans and the largest media contingent in the history of Memorial Stadium. There were nine Bowden Bowls overall, with Bobby winning five games, but Tommy won four of the last five contests.

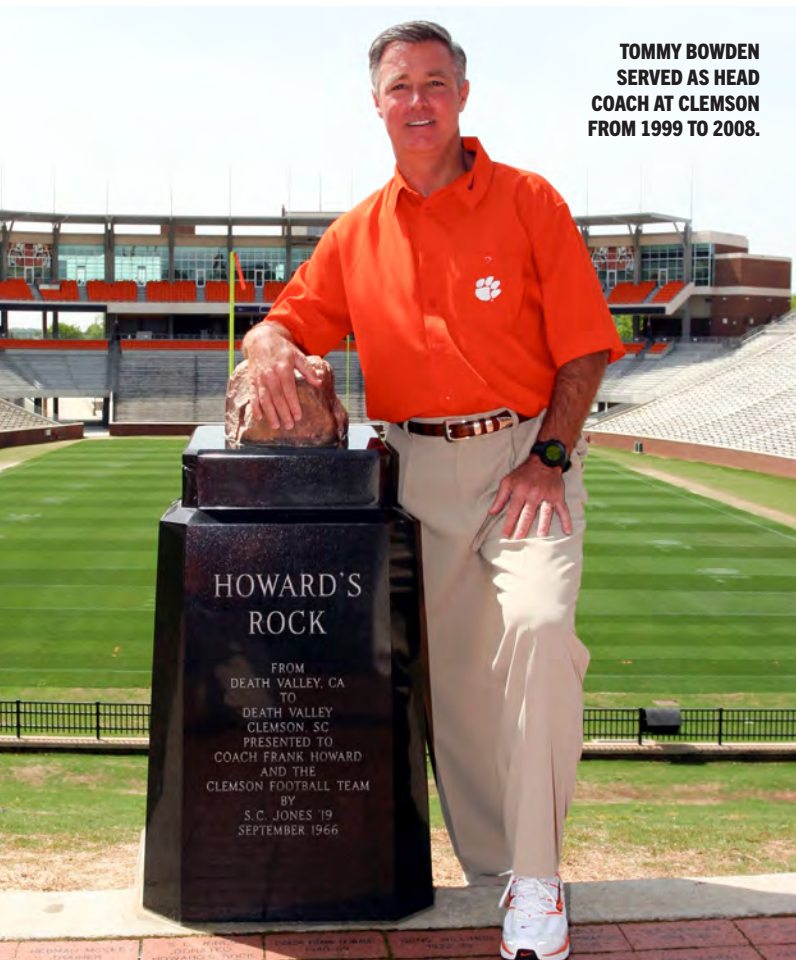

Bowden took Clemson to an 8-0 start and a No. 3 national ranking in 2000 before finishing with a 9-2 regular-season record and a No. 14 final ranking. The regular season concluded with a 16-14 victory over a top-25 South Carolina team. A 50-yard pass from Woodrow Dantzler to Rod Gardner is regarded as one of the most-exciting plays in Clemson history. The following year, Dantzler went on to become the first quarterback in Division I history to reach 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

Bowden also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2003 when he led the Tigers to a 9-4 record. That season, the Tigers won their last four games, including a 26-10 win over No. 3 Florida State. Clemson defeated South Carolina 63-17 in the regular-season finale and completed the season with a 27-14 win over No. 6 Tennessee in the Peach Bowl. Clemson finished the year in the top 25 of both polls as well.

Bowden finished with a 7-2 record against the Gamecocks. At the time of his departure, the 77.8 winning percentage was the best in school history among Clemson coaches who served the program at least five seasons. All seven of his victories were over Hall of Fame Head Coaches Lou Holtz and Steve Spurrier.

After a 3-3 start to the 2008 season, Bowden resigned on October 13, four days after a 12-7 loss at Wake Forest. He had a 72-45 record (.615) at Clemson for those nine-and-a-half seasons. Bowden never had a losing season, overall or in the ACC, during his nine complete seasons. He led the Tigers to eight bowl games.

Bowden now resides in Florida.

BOWL HISTORY

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 27 bowl wins, 10th most in history, and their 50 bowl games are 12th most in history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

The Tigers have played in a bowl game 35 of the last 39 years. That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985. Clemson has also been bowl-eligible 25 consecutive years.

The Tigers have beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Alabama, LSU, Miami (Fla.), Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, victories over Boston College, Missouri and Miami (Fla.). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all been victorious in bowl games for the Tigers since the 1939 season.

Overall, 10 of Clemson's 27 bowl wins have come against head coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame. The Tigers also have eight bowl wins over top-10 teams since 2012.

Clemson has achieved bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in history:

- Frank Leahy when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Joe Paterno (Penn State) when Clemson beat Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It was Paterno's largest margin of defeat in a bowl game.
- Woody Hayes (Ohio State) in the 1978 Gator Bowl, Hayes' last game as a coach.
- Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne (Nebraska) in the 1982 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its first national championship at the end of the 1981 season.
- Don Nehlen (West Virginia) when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee), who had over 150 career wins, in the 2003 Peach Bowl.
- Les Miles (LSU), who led the Tigers to the 2007 national championship, fell to Clemson 25-24 in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in the 2013 Orange Bowl and 2016 Fiesta Bowl
- Bob Stoops, who won a national championship in the 2000 season with Oklahoma, saw his Sooners fall in back to back bowl games, including the 2015 Orange Bowl.
- Nick Saban, who had won four national titles and was riding a 26-game winning streak, fell to the Tigers in the 2016 national championship game in Florida.
- Nick Saban for the second time at the end of the 2018 season, as the Tigers claimed their second national championship in three seasons with a 44-16 victory.

CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Tiger home football games must be made through the Clemson Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system (SportsSystems.com/Clemson). Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will open two weeks prior to each game and will close at noon ET on Wednesday prior to each game.

For more information on credential requests for Memorial Stadium, contact Chandler Simpson via email at mcsimp2@clemson.edu.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy is available at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson football or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the athletic communications office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

- 1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a photo vest.
- 2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at media will call outside Game 10 (visitors' tunnel). Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
- 3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west endzone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
- 4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
- 5) Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
- 6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
- 7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests to speak with players, coaches and staff should be directed to Ross Taylor (rt5@clemson.edu) or a member of the Clemson athletic communications staff. Members of the media who reach out directly to players, coaches or staff without prior approval of Clemson staff may face suspension or revocation of credentials.

TIGER TIMELINE

Sept. 30, 1896 - A small crowd gathered in one of the barracks rooms and discussed the advisability of organizing a football association and to devise some means of getting a coach. The organization, known as the Clemson College Football Association, was perfected and the following officers elected: President Frank Tompkins, Secretary & Treasurer Charlie Gentry, Manager T.R. Vogel, Temporary Captain Reuben Hamilton. A committee of three was appointed to consult Prof. Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

Oct. 5, 1896 - Practice began on campus on a 50' x 200' field in front of the college.

Oct. 31, 1896 - Clemson played its first football game, defeating Furman 14-6 in Greenville, S.C. It was the first time that many of the Clemson players had seen a full-sized football gridiron. Charlie Gentry was credited with scoring the Tigers' first touchdown.

Nov. 21, 1896 - Clemson defeated Wofford 16-0. When the team arrived back on campus that night, the cadet corps along with faculty members led the team around in a buggy led by a torchlight procession and proceeded to go all over the campus. With this win, Clemson claimed the state title.

Nov. 10, 1897 - Clemson defeated South Carolina for the first time and won the school's second state championship. A total of 2,000 spectators witnessed the 18-6 triumph. Clemson took an early 4-0 lead when South Carolina's Lee Hagood fumbled on the Gamecock's 31-yard line and Clemson's William Brock caught the fumbled ball in the air and raced 30 yards for a touchdown.

Oct. 20, 1898 - The Tigers played their first home game against Bingham. Clemson won 55-0, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every PAT (11). R.T.V. Bowman, the man for whom the field at Clemson is named, was an assistant coach at that time with Clemson and helped referee the game.

Nov. 10, 1899 - The football association stood on a very weak financial basis. The organization could not even afford to hire a coach. W.M. Riggs agreed to coach the Tigers for free.

Dec. 8, 1899 - John Heisman was hired as head coach.

Oct. 22, 1900 - The Tigers defeated Wofford 21-0. Actually, Clemson scored many more points, but a pregame agreement between the two stated that every point Clemson scored after the first four touchdowns would not count. No one could keep an accurate count after Clemson scored its first 21 points after just six minutes elapsed. All touchdowns Clemson made were called back and the ball given to Wofford deep in Clemson territory on such penalties as running over a Wofford tackler.

Nov. 29, 1900 - Clemson's 35-0 win over Alabama allowed John Heisman's team to finish the year undefeated (6-0). It was Clemson's first undefeated team and was the only team to win all of the games in a season until the 1948 squad went 11-0. Clemson won the SIAA Championship, its first conference title.

Oct. 5, 1901 - Clemson opened the season with a 122-0 win over Guilford, the most points scored in Tiger history. They averaged 30 yards per play and a touchdown every minute and 26 seconds. The first half lasted 20 minutes while the second half lasted only 10 minutes. Legend has it that every man on the team scored a touchdown in the game.

Oct. 30, 1902 - Col. Charles S. Roller Jr., who was football coach of Furman, was the only referee for the Clemson-South Carolina game. Bronco Armstrong, a famous Yale player and official, was to be the umpire, but was in a railroad wreck on the way to Clemson and it was impossible for him to get to the game in time. Not a single penalty was called in the game. A riot between Tiger and Gamecock fans broke out the night after the game. Officials at both colleges called off the football series between the two schools. Clemson and South Carolina did not meet again in football until 1909.

Nov. 27, 1902 - Clemson played in the snow for the first time in a game against Tennessee. The Tigers won the game 11-0 and claimed the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association crown, their second league title in three years.

Oct. 10, 1903 - Clemson beat Georgia 29-0. In the first 10 minutes, Clemson fumbled the ball three times. After the game, the Georgia team made a deal with the Clemson team. They would give the Clemson team a bushel of apples for every point Clemson would defeat Georgia Tech above the score Clemson made against Georgia. The score turned out to be Clemson 73, Georgia Tech 0. Apples were plentiful around Clemson that winter - 44 bushels.

Oct. 17, 1903 - Clemson defeated Georgia Tech 73-0. Clemson rushed the ball 55 times for 615 yards, still a school record, while Tech ran the ball 35 times and collected 28 yards. The second half was shortened to 15 minutes.

Oct. 28, 1903 - The Tigers defeated NC State 24-0 in Columbia, S.C. at the fairgrounds. One incident that delayed the start was the fact that the sideline spectators in their eagerness to see each play crowded in front of the grandstand and on the field. Twenty-minute halves were played, because the field had to be given to the racing association at 12:45 p.m. Even the short halves could not be played out and the time limit was up when 16 minutes of the second half had been played. Heisman married Evelyn Barksdale in Columbia after the game.

Nov. 26, 1903 - One day after Georgia Tech's deadline for its offer had expired, John Heisman wired Georgia Tech President Lyman Hall that he would accept its offer of $2,250 per year plus 30 percent of net gate receipts at home games to coach its athletic teams.

Sept. 30, 1904 - Clemson began practice under new Head Coach Shack Shealy, who was at one time a great football player. He played varsity ball six years, four at Clemson and two at Iowa State. He is still the only Clemson graduate to serve as head coach of the Tiger football team.

Nov. 11, 1905 - The Clemson-Auburn game was called on account of darkness. Clemson won, 6-0.

Nov. 29, 1906 - Clemson's first forward pass occurred in a 10-0 win over Georgia Tech. Powell Lykes dropped back to kick, but instead made a forward pass of 30 yards to George Warren.

Sept. 28, 1907 - The cadets of Clemson College braved wind and rain at Bowman Field to witness the Tigers in their earliest season-opener to date. Clemson met Gordon on a muddy field. Clemson was playing under new Head Coach Frank Shaughnessy.

Nov. 4-9, 1907 - Clemson played three games within a week's time. Clemson lost to Auburn 12-0 on November 4 and lost to Georgia in Augusta, Ga. on November 7. The Tigers barely made it back in time to play Davidson at Clemson on November 9 and lost 10-6.

April 1, 1908 - Tiger football hopes of the 1908 season were shattered on this day, not by what happened in spring practice, but what 300 students did as a college prank on April Fools' Day. The cadets were expelled for removing a Civil War cannon from the town square of Pendleton, four miles down the road from campus, and bringing the cannon back to Clemson. Many of the football stars, as well as many future stars, were among those who were expelled.

Oct. 2, 1915 - Clemson dedicated Riggs Field prior to a 6-6 tie with Davidson. Clemson would play its football games at the facility through 1941. It is now the home of Clemson's soccer stadium.

Oct. 9, 1915 - The Tigers traveled to Knoxville, where they won fame by defeating the defending conference champion Tennessee, 3-0. Bill Harris drop-kicked a 20-yard field goal for the only score of the game in the fourth quarter. Tennessee was the defending champion of the SIAA.

Oct. 13, 1917 - Clemson downed Furman 38-0, as the Tigers' Stumpy Banks scored five touchdowns, a record that still stands today.

Nov. 16, 1918 - The University of South Carolina athletic authorities provided the use of their stadium to Clemson and The Citadel for their annual game. South Carolina was playing at Furman that day and the field was not going to be used by the Gamecocks. The game was played at Columbia because the military officials from both schools would not allow players to be absent from any military duties due to athletic events. Since the game was played in Columbia, both school's cadets and football teams were able to make the trip to Columbia and return to duty on time. Clemson's John O'Dell scored the game's only touchdown, as the Tigers won 7-0. Both teams made it back to their campuses before their passes expired.

Dec. 27, 1926 - Josh Cody was named head football coach at Clemson.

Sept. 19, 1928 - Clemson began this season with new uniforms. The Tigers wore a brilliant orange jersey for the first time, with black composition cloth stripes on the front with purple numbers.

Dec., 1928 - O.K. Pressley, a center, was named third-team All-American by the Newspaper Enterprise Association. He was Clemson's first All-American in any sport.

May 6, 1929 - Josh Cody, Clemson head coach, was presented with a new automobile that afternoon as a gift from alumni, faculty, students and friends of the college. A special collection was taken up to purchase the new Buick. The presentation ceremony was staged in front of Tillman Hall.

March 13, 1930 - Josh Cody signed a new contract to stay at Clemson through the 1932 season.

Oct. 17, 1930 - Maxcey Welch scored five touchdowns (all rushing) in Clemson's 75-0 win over Newberry. Welch and Stumpy Banks are the co-holders of that Clemson touchdown scoring record.

TIGER TIMELINE

Nov. 26, 1930 - Josh Cody announced that the Furman game the next day will be his final as head coach.

Nov. 27, 1930 - Clemson defeated Furman 12-7 at Furman to conclude the Tigers third straight eight-win season, the only eight-win seasons in Clemson history between 1896 and 1938. The 1930 Tigers concluded the season with an 8-2 record and posted four shutouts. In fact, only Tennessee and Florida scored over a touchdown against the Tigers in this season.

Nov. 29, 1930 - The Tiger student newspaper published an extra edition about Coach Cody, hoping to convince him to remain as coach. Cody had become a popular mentor because of his 29-11-1 record, including a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina, the only coach in Clemson history to have a perfect ledger against the Gamecocks (minimum four games).

Jan. 2, 1931 - After reconsidering his decision for over a month, Cody made his resignation final. He went on to be a football coach and men's basketball coach at Temple.

Jan. 17, 1931 - Jess Neely was named head football coach at Clemson. He was the second consecutive Vanderbilt graduate to coach the Tigers. Cody was a 1917 graduate of Vanderbilt and Neely graduated in 1923. In fact, eight of the nine Clemson head football coaches between 1931-98 were graduates of current SEC schools.

Oct. 16, 1931 - Clemson suffered a surprising 6-0 loss against The Citadel in a game played in Florence, S.C. After the game, Neely, Captain Frank Jervey and others met in a car outside the stadium to discuss ways Clemson could help its football program get back on track. The meeting started the ball rolling towards the establishment of the IPTAY Foundation. Clemson would score just three touchdowns and win one game during the 1931 season.

Oct. 14, 1933 - Clemson played at George Washington in a 0-0 tie. This was the first time Clemson played under the lights. Fans followed the game on a grid graph in Tillman Hall at the Clemson chapel. A grid graph was an electrical machine that was marked off like a football field. Lights were so arranged on the graph that every possible play was flashed on the board. The lineups of both teams were written on the sides and the man carrying the ball on each play had a light flashed by his name. Another light representing the runner moved along the board in the same direction and for the same distance as the runner.

Aug. 20, 1934 - IPTAY, the nation's first scholarship fundraising organization, was founded. Dr. Rupert Fike, a cancer specialist from Atlanta and Clemson class of 1908, wrote Jess Neely a letter documenting the formation of the organization. "Last night we had a little meeting out at my house and organized the IPTAY Club," Fike wrote. "The purpose (of IPTAY) shall be to provide financial support to the athletic department at Clemson and to assist in every other way possible to regain for Clemson the high athletic standing which rightfully belongs to her." The organization was first established as a secret organization and initial membership dues were set at $10 a year. Many had suggested that $50 be the minimum donation, but Fike's foresight thought it would be best to get as many supporters involved as possible, so he established the $10 minimum. The excitement about the organization carried over into the 1934 season and the Tigers ran to their first winning season since 1930. Clemson had gone 0-5-1 against Furman and South Carolina during those years, then defeated both teams in 1934.

Nov. 19, 1935 - Clemson held its first night football practice. Two powerful floodlights were installed at the practice fields. The Clemson coaches wanted more practice time with the players and that was the reason the lights were brought in. The extra practice did not pay off however, as Clemson lost its final game that year to Furman, 8-6.

Nov. 17, 1937 - Clemson defeated Florida in Gainesville by a 10-9 score. Don Willis scored Clemson's only TD of the game on a one-yard run that culminated a 65-yard drive on Clemson's opening possession. Later Clemson gave up a safety and a touchdown, so Florida led 9-7 heading into the fourth quarter. But, the Tigers drove 60 yards late in the game and Ben Pearson booted a 27-yard field goal to win the game. At the time, it gave Clemson a 4-4 record in 1937, but it proved to be a program builder, much as Clemson's win over South Carolina in 1980 did. The Tigers posted to a 22-2-2 record over a 26-game period that started with that win at Florida. Clemson's only losses in that 26-game period were to Tennessee in 1938 and Tulane in 1939. Tennessee ended the 1938 season with a 10-0 record and ranked second in the nation, while Tulane ended the 1939 season with an 8-0-1 mark and fifth in the country.

Nov. 5, 1938 - Clemson scored with big plays in a win over George Washington, 27-0. The Tigers scored three touchdowns on plays of at least 65 yards, the first time in history Clemson had scoring plays of that distance in the same game. Banks McFadden ran 70 yards for a score on the first Clemson play from scrimmage. Later, Shad Bryant scored on a 65-yard punt return and on a 65-yard run off a lateral. George Washington actually had more first downs, 15-13, yet lost by 27 points.

Sept. 23, 1939 - Banks McFadden ran 90 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 18-0 win over Presbyterian. It is still tied for the longest run in Clemson history. McFadden had a career high 173 yards in 15 attempts on this day.

Sept. 30, 1939 - Clemson suffered its only loss of the season to a revenge minded Tulane 11. The Tigers had beaten the Green Wave the previous year by a 13-10 score. This season, however, Tulane defeated Clemson 7-6. Despite the loss, it was a game that brought acclaim to Clemson for its ability to play so close with the team that would end the year ranked fifth in the nation. McFadden was all over the field on this day, throwing for Clemson's only touchdown and defending enemy passes from the secondary. His punting kept Tulane bottled up in their own territory. He had 12 punts for 504 yards, including a record six punts of at least 50 yards. Unfortunately, he was involved in what proved to be the game's deciding play, as his extra point attempt after Clemson's only touchdown was blocked.

Oct. 19, 1939 - Clemson outgained South Carolina 402-90 in a 27-0 win. Banks McFadden threw for 85 yards and rushed for 76 in just 14 attempts.

Oct. 26, 1939 - Clemson showed it was a deep enough team to win without All-American Banks McFadden, who missed the Navy game with an injury. Shad Bryant had a 40-yard run for a score in Clemson's 15-7 win at Annapolis.

Nov. 3, 1939 - Clemson won in the Washington, D.C. area for the second straight week, defeating George Washington, 13-6. Bryant had 127 yards rushing and scored Clemson's only touchdown. The game was played on a Friday evening.

Nov. 11, 1939 - McFadden completed just four passes against Wake Forest, but three were to Joe Blalock for 105 yards, the first 100-yard receiving game in Tiger history. It was the final home game for McFadden and the rest of the Tiger seniors.

Nov. 13, 1939 - Clemson was ranked in the AP poll for the first time. The Tigers beat Wake Forest 20-7 to improve to 6-1. Clemson had 33 poll points on that November 13 ranking and one first-place vote out of the 85 votes in the poll that week. Clemson remained in the top 20 over the next three weeks and each week Clemson had exactly one first-place vote. However, in the final poll, even though Clemson had run the table to finish 8-1 in the regular season, that individual failed to vote Clemson No. 1, as the Tigers did not have a first-place vote in the December 11 (final) poll.

Nov. 18, 1939 - Clemson won away from home for the fourth straight time, a 21-6 win over Rhodes. Banks McFadden and George Floyd combined for 126 yards rushing.

Nov. 25, 1939 - Clemson concluded its 8-1 regular season with a 14-3 victory over Furman. Shad Bryant ran for 94 yards and gained 75 more in punt returns. McFadden scored two touchdowns and had 10 punts for a 42-yard average, intercepted a pass and completed a pass.

Dec. 8, 1939 - Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Cotton Bowl. It was Clemson's first postseason bowl game appearance. Clemson did meet Cumberland in a postseason "Championship of the South" game in 1903, but it was not considered an established bowl.

Dec. 11, 1939 - Clemson ranked 12th in the final poll by the Associated Press, Clemson's first appearance in a final season AP poll. The Tigers had 112 poll points, just behind Boston College, who had 120.5 poll points for 11th place. Clemson would defeat Boston College in the Cotton Bowl, but the AP did not have a poll after the bowls. In fact, for whatever the reason, the AP did not have a final poll after the bowls until after the 1968 season. Thus, Clemson actually would have had a much higher ranking by today's standards if there would have been a poll in January 1940.

Dec. 15, 1939 - Banks McFadden was named a first-team All-American by AP and a third-team selection by UPI. He was the first Clemson player honored by the AP. Later that year he was named the Nation's Most Versatile Athlete for 1939. Earlier in the year he had led Clemson to the 1939 Southern Conference Championship in basketball, still the only postseason championship in Clemson history.

Jan. 1, 1940 - In Clemson's first bowl appearance, it defeated Boston College 6-3. Charlie Timmons scored the game's lone touchdown from two yards out and rushed for 115 yards. Banks McFadden keyed the defense with four pass deflections of Boston College passes and he also averaged 43 yards per punt. Boston College drove to the Clemson eight with three minutes left, but Shad Bryant and McFadden knocked away third and fourth-down passes to save the day for the Tigers. "Clemson is every bit as good as they were cracked up to be," said Boston College Coach Frank Leahy, still the second winningest coach in college football history on a percentage basis. "We lost to a great team, one of the best I have ever seen. I have the satisfaction of knowing that while we were beaten, the game wasn't lost on a fluke."

TIGER TIMELINE

Jan. 10, 1940 - Jess Neely resigned as athletic director and football coach to accept the head football coaching job at Rice. Neely had inherited a $47,000 deficit when he arrived in 1931 and earned Clemson $100,000 during his tenure, and left with $57,000 in the treasury. His overall record at Clemson was 43-35-7. He would be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

Jan. 11, 1940 - Frank Howard was named head coach. At the Athletic Council meeting that day, Howard was nominated for the position by Professor Sam Rhodes, a council member. When a call for a second was asked, Howard, standing in the back of the room, said: "I second the nomination." It is perhaps the only recorded time in history a coach has seconded his own nomination for head coach.

July 25, 1940 - Banks McFadden accepted a bid to play in the College All-Star game against the Green Bay Packers on August 29. He scored one of the two touchdowns for the College All-Stars.

Sept. 1, 1940 - Banks McFadden signed a one-year contract to play with the Brooklyn Dodgers professional football team. He led the NFL in yards per carry in 1940, but did not like the bright lights of New York and returned to Clemson.

Sept. 21, 1940 - In Frank Howard's first game as head coach, Clemson scored on the first offensive play as George Floyd reversed around left end and raced 18 yards untouched for a touchdown. The Tigers went on to a 38-0 win over Presbyterian.

Oct. 12, 1940 - Clemson shutout Wake Forest 39-0 in Clemson's second game of the season at Riggs Field. It was Clemson's third shutout in the first four games of the Howard era. It was the last home game of the season for the Tigers, who would go on to win the Southern Conference title even though seven of the nine games were on the road.

Oct. 24, 1940 - Frank Howard won his first game as head coach in the rivalry with South Carolina. The Tigers were victorious 21-13 thanks to five interceptions by the Tiger defense. Howard coached in 30 Clemson-South Carolina games. Incredible as it may seem, both Clemson and South Carolina scored exactly 411 total points in those 30 games.

Oct. 28, 1940 - It didn't take Howard long to get the Tigers into the nation's top 10. With the 5-0 start the Tigers earned 136 poll points and ranked No. 10 in the nation, Clemson's first top-10 ranking in the AP poll. Two writers ranked Clemson No. 1.

Nov. 23, 1940 - Clemson won the Southern Conference title with a 13-7 win over Furman. Ed Maness led the way for the Tigers with 136 yards rushing on 18 carries. It was the first of eight conference titles for the Tigers under Frank Howard.

Oct. 6, 1941 - Work began on Memorial Stadium. The chore of cleaning, digging and leveling the site as well as cutting large trees and clearing underbrush was supervised by Frank Howard. A pipe was also installed for drainage under the field.

Oct. 11, 1941 - Clemson defeated Boston College at Fenway Park, 26-13. Joe Blalock scored two touchdowns as Clemson overcame a 6-0 deficit after the first quarter. BC outgained Clemson 363-281, but Clemson came away with the victory.

Oct. 23, 1941 - Booty Payne became the first Clemson player to pass for over 200 yards in an 18-14 loss to South Carolina. He completed 9-16 passes for 202 yards in the contest. It was one of just three 200-yard passing games by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s.

Nov. 15, 1941 - Clemson defeated Wake Forest, 29-0, in the last game at Riggs Field.

Nov. 22, 1941 - The Tigers put on the greatest rushing defense exhibition in the first 100 years of Clemson history, holding Furman to -21 yards rushing in a 34-6 win in Greenville. Charlie Timmons scored three touchdowns and added four extra points in his final game as a Tiger. But Timmons was not the leading rusher in the game, as teammate Sid Tinsley picked up 127 yards on just seven carries.

Sept. 19, 1942 - Memorial Stadium opened and the Tigers ran down the Hill for the first time. Clemson also became the first program in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

April 27, 2023 - Clemson had multiple players selected in the first round of an NFL draft for the fourth time in a five-year span when the Cincinnati Bengals and New Orleans Saints selected Myles Murphy and Bryan Bresee, respectively, in the first round. With their consecutive selections at the No. 28 and No. 29 picks, Clemson produced back-to-back first-round picks in a single draft for the first time in program history.

Sept. 9, 2023 - Clemson christened its updated Tiger Walk plaza to the west of Memorial Stadium with a ribbon cutting featuring Head Coach Dabo Swinney and cornerstone partners Jim and Candace Brown. Featuring era-specific in-ground plaques denoting every team captain in program history, the reimagined Tiger Walk space was updated to honor legends of Clemson's past and create a 365-day destination for Tiger fans as a permanent encapsulation of the program's history and tradition.

Sept. 30, 2023 - With a 31-14 win at Syracuse, Dabo Swinney earned his 100th career ACC regular-season victory, matching Frank Howard's school record for conference wins. Howard had a 100-48-5 record in conference play across the SoCon and ACC. Swinney passed Howard with a win against Wake Forest the following week.

Nov. 4, 2023 - Dabo Swinney became the winningest head coach in school history as Clemson defeated No. 12 Notre Dame 31-23 at Death Valley. The victory was the 166th of his career, pushing him past Frank Howard (165 from 1940-69). The win also moved Clemson to 5-0 against starting quarterback Sam Hartman during his tenures at Wake Forest and Notre Dame, making Clemson the first Power Five Conference team to defeat a starting quarterback five times since Miami (Fla.) posted a 5-0 record against Florida State in games started by quarterback Chris Rix from 2001-04.

Nov. 25, 2023 - Clemson earned a 16-7 win at South Carolina to join Alabama as the only programs to total 150 wins since 2011. With a scoop-and-score and an interception, freshman Khalil Barnes became the first Tiger to record a takeaway on consecutive plays from scrimmage by an opponent since Brian Dawkins against Duke in 1995. Barrett Carter repeated the feat in the fourth quarter of Clemson's next game, a comeback win against Kentucky in the Gator Bowl.

JERRY BUTLER

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Coaches from all over the ACC area gathered for the North-South All-Star game in Columbia, S.C. in late July 1975. The game, which is now played at Myrtle Beach every December, was the final high school event of the year and a final showcase for soon-to-be first-year freshmen.

Ninety percent of the participants were highly recruited signees from the previous February who were ready to join Division I schools from all over the Southeast. But at one juncture of the game, a wide receiver who had not signed a football scholarship with any school took over the game.

Jimmy Kiser, a future ACC assistant football coach, threw a pass over the middle to a wide receiver named Jerry Butler of Ware Shoals High School. Butler turned on the speed and raced untouched 70 yards for a score. The college coaches, who were not familiar with the track star, took notice and collectively asked, "Who is that guy?"

That included the Clemson coaches. Much to their glee, they discovered by the end of the evening that Jerry Odel Butler was in fact coming to Clemson...on a track scholarship.

Butler went on to star at Clemson, earning AP First-Team All-America honors and leading Clemson to uncharted team accomplishments. In 1999, Butler became the sixth member of the Clemson Football Ring of Honor, the highest honor accorded a Tiger gridder. He was named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team in the fall of 2002.

Whatever the means of his sojourn to Clemson, the school has certainly been a better place because of Butler's attendance. A diligent student who earned his degree in 1980, Butler is a standard for wide receivers and Tiger players regardless of position.

Statistically, Butler's accomplishments are countless. He was a model of consistency, as shown by his 36-game streak of making at least one reception, a streak he set between 1976-78, a record that is still intact today. He concluded his career with 139 receptions for 2,223 yards and 11 touchdowns, a 16-yards-per-catch rate. All those figures are still in the top five in Clemson history. Butler set the Clemson single-game reception yardage record with 163 against Georgia Tech in 1977. His 58 catches in 1978 stood as a record until 1997.

The honors certainly followed, especially after his senior year. Butler appeared on the Bob Hope Christmas Special in 1978 thanks to his selection to the AP All-America team, the only AP First-Team All-America wide receiver in school history.

While Clemson fans will always remember his considerable statistics and honors, one play stands out. At South Carolina in 1977, Clemson trailed the Gamecocks 27-24 in the final minutes. The Tigers needed a victory to clinch a Gator Bowl berth, a selection that would be Clemson's first bowl invitation since 1959.

Steve Fuller, also a member of Clemson's Football Ring of Honor, quarterbacked Clemson to the South Carolina 20-yard line. With just 49 seconds left, Fuller lofted a ball to the right corner of the endzone toward Butler. Using every ounce of his exceptional athletic ability, Butler made a leaping backwards diving reception, giving Clemson a 31-27 victory.

That season, that game and that catch launched the program on a 20-year run that saw Clemson return to the national rankings, bowl selections, ACC championships and a national championship. Many Tiger supporters wonder how fate would have dealt the program had Butler not made that catch.

Given these heroics at Clemson, Butler was chosen as the No. 5 overall selection of the 1979 NFL draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Unlike his first season at Clemson, Butler did not sneak up on anyone. He had dreamed of playing in the NFL and wasted little time, signing a professional contract just six days after the draft, the first first-round draft pick to sign that year.

Butler made Buffalo's front office look smart, as he set NFL rookie records for receiving touchdowns (4) and receiving yards (255) in a 1979 contest against the New York Jets.

"That was the best single-game performance I've ever seen from a wide receiver," said NBC broadcaster and former NFL quarterback John Brodie. "I played the game for 16 years, but I've never seen anything like that."

Butler ended his rookie year with 48 receptions for 834 yards, four touchdowns and was named the AFC Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News. The following year, he increased his reception total to 57 for 832 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

By the end of his nine-year career with Buffalo, Butler had 278 catches for 4,301 yards and 29 touchdowns. He missed two seasons due to knee injuries, 32 games that certainly could have enhanced his career numbers.

After his years at Clemson, Butler took community service to another level at the professional level. In 1981 and 1982, he was named the Bills' NFL Man-of-the-Year. He was one of five finalists for the award nationally in 1981. In 1983, he was honored with the Jackie Robinson Award for community service by the YMCA of Greater Buffalo. In 1986, he was a finalist for the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for outstanding community service from the NFL Players Association.

In 1987, he received the "Salute to Young Leaders Award" from the YMCA of Greater Buffalo Area. Two years after he retired, he was honored with the Ralph C. Wilson Distinguished Service Award.

Upon completion of his football career in 1987, Butler became director of player & alumni relations for the Buffalo Bills' organization, a position he held until 1999, when he became an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns.

FRED CONE

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Fred Cone is living proof that recruiting services and all their accompanying hype aren't what they are cracked up to be. Cone was inducted into Clemson's Football Ring of Honor in the Fall of 1997, just the fourth Clemson football player in history to receive the honor.

But, he came to Clemson without having played a down of high school football. It is perhaps the most unusual story concerning an athlete's journey to Clemson. Cone was visiting his sister at Biloxi, Miss., far from the haunts of his hometown, an obscure place called Pineapple, Ala.

Unbeknown to Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard, Cone's sister lived next door to Howard's sister, Hazel, in Biloxi. On years when Clemson would play Tulane in New Orleans, La., Howard would send Hazel a pair of tickets.

"One year she sent the two tickets back," recalled Howard, "She said she'd like to have four tickets because she wanted to take the next-door neighbor to the game."

That was in 1946, Cone's senior year in high school. After Cone graduated, Hazel wrote him a letter.

"Brother, I have you a good football player, but he's never played football."

Howard recalled that he had told the Clemson registrar to save him 40 beds in the barracks and that Howard would turn in that many names on September 1.

"When Hazel wrote me about Fred Cone, I had 39 names on that list. So I just wrote 'Fred Cone' in as the 40th name. And that's how I got probably the best, if not the best, football player I ever had."

Cone graduated from Moore Academy in Pineapple and came to Clemson in 1947 as a freshman, but first-year players were not eligible to play then. It was probably best for Cone because he had not played high school football. He needed a year to get acclimated. When Cone became eligible for the varsity in 1948, the football program took on a different air.

In the second game of his career, against NC State, Cone had the first of his eight 100-yard career rushing games, leading Clemson to an important victory. He was Clemson's top rusher (635 yards and seven touchdowns) that season, a regular season that saw Clemson compile a 10-0 record and an invitation to the Gator Bowl against Missouri.

Clemson ended up on the long end of a 24-23 game. Cone rushed for 72 yards and scored twice in the first quarter, but it was his effort on a fourth-down play that was the difference in the game.

Clemson held a one-point lead and faced a fourth-and-three at the Missouri 45. It was either gamble for a first down or punt and give Missouri another chance to score.

Howard would say later, "We hadn't stopped them all day so I took my chance with a running play."

Cone hit a stone wall at left tackle, but kept digging and slid off a little more to the outside, found a little wiggling room and mustered six yards and a first down at the Missouri 35. Clemson retained possession those few remaining minutes and ran out the clock. Years later, Howard said it was the most memorable play of his 30-year career.

Despite a down year in 1949, Cone gained more yards (703) rushing and scored more touchdowns (9) than his sophomore year. However, 1950 was to bring about another undefeated season.

After the expected win over Presbyterian to start the season, Clemson faced preseason No. 17 Missouri on the road. Cone gained 111 yards on 21 carries, one of three Tigers over the 100-yard mark that day.

In 1950, Clemson scored 50 points in three games, but Cone saved his best until his last regular season game against Auburn.

Rumor had it that if Clemson scored over a certain number of points on Auburn that the Orange Bowl bid was in its pocket. The South Carolina Tigers defeated the Alabama Tigers 41-0. Cone gained 163 yards, two shy of a five-yard average, and scored three touchdowns on the ground and one on a 28-yard reception.

Icing on the cake this time came against Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl. Although Sterling Smith's tackle of Frank Smith in the endzone for a safety brought a 15-14 victory Clemson's way, Cone gained 81 yards on the ground, scored once, punted four times and returned one kickoff. It put a great climax on Cone's career.

The 1948-50 era is the only time in Clemson history that has seen the Tiger football program record two undefeated seasons in a three-year period. Cone and Ray Mathews were the only common denominators in the starting lineup on those two teams.

Cone's senior season numbers (845 rushing yards, 15 touchdowns) were school records at the time. He also set career records for rushing yards (2,183) and touchdowns (31).

A seven-year hitch with the Packers was so impressive that he was inducted into their hall of fame in 1974. One year, he led the NFL in field goals. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys in their first year of existence in 1960. Later, he returned to Clemson as its chief recruiter for 10 years beginning in 1961.

After Cone completed his Clemson career, Howard was still stumped as to how his sister could predict that her neighbor's brother would be such an outstanding football player.

"He just looked so athletic jumping off of that diving board," Hazel said without skipping a beat.

JEFF DAVIS

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Even though Clemson's football heritage is over 100 years old, it does not take long to determine the most significant accomplishment in the program's history...the 1981 National Championship. And along the same lines, it does not take long to single out the most significant team leader of that great accomplishment...Jeff Davis.

When examining Davis' contributions to Clemson athletics in terms of leadership, citizenship and athletic records and awards, it is no surprise that he became just the fourth member of Clemson's prestigious Ring of Honor prior to the opener of the 1995 season. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

"It is hard to express my feelings on being inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor and College Football Hall of Fame," said Davis. "These honors should be spread among my coaches and teammates and all of Clemson who had an impact on my life during my career. No one receives honors like this without help. I want to thank the good Lord for giving me the ability and the opportunity to come to Clemson."

The native of Greensboro, N.C. registered a then Clemson record 175 tackles in leading the Tigers' 1981 defense that set a school record for turnovers forced (41) in a single season. He still holds the Clemson career record for caused fumbles (10) and recovered fumbles (8), and his 24 tackles against North Carolina in 1980 are second most in school history.

He played 40 games for Clemson between 1978-81 and had 469 career tackles, 16 pass breakups, 18 tackles for loss, four sacks and four interceptions. He started all 35 games for the Tigers between 1979-81. He was a model of consistency, having registered at least double-figures in tackles in 22 of his last 23 games. Overall, he had 30 double-figure tackle games in his 40-game career and led the team in tackles 25 times.

For his accomplishments in 1981, Davis was named the MVP of the ACC, just the third defensive player in league history to win the award. He concluded the season in grand style with a 14-tackle performance in the 22-15 Orange Bowl win over Nebraska that clinched the national championship for the Tigers, Clemson's first national title in any sport. Davis was named defensive MVP of the contest as well.

At the conclusion of the season, Davis was named a first-team All-American by UPI, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News. He was named lineman-of-the-year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club as well.

"We had purpose," recalled Davis, whose twin sons, J.D. and Judah, played linebackers for the Tigers and won two national titles of their own from 2015-18. "We took everything one game at a time and did not get caught up in the chase for the national championship. When we started the season, the championship was not a (realistic) goal. We were coming off a 6-5 season in 1980 in which we all thought we could have done much better."

After clinching the ACC title with a win over Maryland and the state championship with a convincing win at South Carolina, Davis and his Tiger teammates prepared to meet No. 4 Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl, a game that would determine the national championship.

"We knew we were going to win that night," reflected Davis, who was nicknamed "The Judge" by then Assistant Sports Information Director Kim Kelly. "I think the first possession of the game was the key because they fumbled and William Devane recovered the ball. That led to a score and that was something we had been doing all year, forcing turnovers and taking over the game. That just told us that this game was not going to be any different than any of the others."

Perry Tuttle, Davis' roommate for four seasons and also an All-American on Clemson's 1981 national championship team, recalled that season and Davis' passion for the game.

"When we were in the room at night, he would talk about the defense and what it was going to do until I fell asleep. As the season went on, we started dreaming about what could happen with this team, and as we went along, everything started to come true."

Davis was a fifth-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1982, but he proved the NFL scouts wrong by posting impressive numbers during his six-year NFL career. The inside linebacker played 83 games, including 72 as a starter, between 1982-87. He led the Buccaneers in tackles three of the six years, including a career-high 165 stops in 1984. Davis served as team captain for four seasons as well.

Davis has been just as successful in life after football. During the spring of 1999, he returned to Clemson as field director of the Call Me Mister Program within the Department of Education, Health & Human Development. In April of 2001, he received the "Use Your Life Award" from Oprah Winfrey's Angel Network for his work in the Call Me Mister Program. He and his wife Joni graduated from Clemson on the same day in 1984, and they are the parents of four daughters and twin boys, who were born in June of 1995.

Today, Davis is a member of Dabo Swinney's staff as assistant athletic director for player relations & external affairs.

"One of my main goals in life is to touch the lives of other people and touch them in a positive way. Any time you receive an award like this, it means you've been surrounded by great people. I want to thank all the people at Clemson, because no one receives an honor like this without help. I am proud to say I am a Clemson graduate and that I represented the University. Hopefully, I have had as positive an impact on them as they have had on me."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Clemson's 1978 team posted a 10-1 record in the regular season and won nine games in a row and an ACC championship under Head Coach Charley Pell. The Tigers were ranked No. 7 in the nation and accepted an invitation to play Ohio State and future Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes in the Gator Bowl.

But in the first week of December, Pell decided to become the head coach at Florida. Two days later Athletic Director Bill McLellan promoted Danny Ford to head coach at the age of 30, at the time the youngest head coach in the nation. His first game was against Ohio State and Hayes on Dec. 29, 1978.

"I really didn't know how to be a head coach," admitted Ford in his classic humble manner. "I just made some decisions on penalties that night. We had some great coaches and some great players."

Ford certainly had some great players help him in that first game, a 17-15 win over the Buckeyes. His roster included Jerry Butler, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller and Terry Kinard (did not play due to injury), and all four of them preceded Ford into the Clemson Ring of Honor.

The victory received even more acclaim than normal because Hayes punched Clemson middle guard Charlie Bauman after he made a game-deciding interception late in the game that allowed the Tigers to clinch the two-point win on national television.

In the chaos of the moment and the chaos that followed the game, we learned a lot about Ford. At age 30, he had the maturity of a 20-year veteran coach the way he handled the situation.

Ford had a unique ability to motivate his players. He was a disciplinarian who worked his team hard. That hard work and respect went hand-in-hand in his ability to get the Tigers ready for highly-ranked opponents led by legendary coaches. In his 11 years as head coach, he led the Tigers to a 26-8-1 record over coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

That list includes Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech), Bobby Bowden (Florida State), Dan Devine (Notre Dame), Vince Dooley (Georgia), Hayes (Ohio State), Tom Osborne (Nebraska), Joe Paterno (Penn State), Steve Spurrier (Duke) and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma).

The 22-15 win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl was the pinnacle of his coaching career because it culminated a national championship season, the first in any sport in Tiger history. Just 33 at the time, Ford is still the youngest FBS coach to win the national title.

"We took each game one at a time," said Ford. "We didn't look ahead and people really didn't think we could do it. We never became No. 1 until Penn State beat Pittsburgh the Saturday after Thanksgiving."

Davis confirmed that approach during the 1981 season.

"Coach Ford did a great job of making sure we took it one game at a time. When we beat North Carolina in Chapel Hill when we were both in the top 10 and we moved to No. 2, it got a little harder to do. But he kept us grounded."

The 1981 season is still one of the most bizarre in history from an upset standpoint nationally. Seven different teams were ranked No. 1 during the course of that year, still the most in one season in history.

It was a special night in Miami, Fla. on Jan. 1, 1982. There were some moments that day that Ford figured it would not be Clemson's night. During the day, Cliff Austin was stuck in an elevator at the team hotel for two hours. Later that night, he would score an important touchdown in the second quarter.

Nebraska was ranked No. 4 in the nation entering the game, while Clemson was No. 1, Georgia was No. 2 and Alabama was No. 3. Alabama lost (14-12) in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, then Pittsburgh beat Georgia 24-20 while the Clemson vs. Nebraska game was in progress.

That meant, had Nebraska beaten Clemson, the Cornhuskers would have vaulted all the way to No. 1. Many Tiger fans worried that result would give Nebraska extra motivation. However, Ford's defense dominated most of the game. When Andy Headen batted down a desperation pass, Clemson had the title.

Obviously, that victory over the Cornhuskers was the highlight of Ford's career in terms of on-field results. But there were many other significant seasons and victories. He led Clemson to six total bowl victories, still the most in school history and second-most in ACC history. Five of the wins were over coaches in the Hall of Fame.

He had a school-record 20 wins over top-25 teams. He led Clemson to a streak of 41 consecutive weeks in the top 20 in the late 1980s. Seven years, he led Clemson to a top-25 final ranking. He also coached 26 All-Americans and 71 First-Team All-ACC players.

Ford finished with a record of 96-29-4, a 76-percent winning mark that is one of the best in ACC history.

Ford is proud of all of his former players, but he must hold some extra pride for those who went on to successful NFL careers. Eleven former players won Super Bowl championship rings.

Many of Ford's former players were with him on Aug. 31, 2013, when he was inducted into the Ring of Honor. It proved to be a special night for Ford and Clemson football in many ways.

The ceremony took place 10 minutes before kickoff. Tiger fans were in the stands well before kickoff, which led to a very special moment on national television when the Tigers ran down the Hill. It certainly contributed to the atmosphere in Death Valley, and the game against Georgia kept the atmosphere alive.

Clemson's defeated No. 5 Georgia 38-35. The winning touchdown was scored by #81 Stanton Seckinger.

"I am so happy for Coach Ford," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney, a fellow Alabama alum. "It was a special night and everything was so fitting. So fitting that he was inducted prior to a Clemson-Georgia game, because those games were legendary when he was the coach here."

"Coach Ford established a standard. He told Clemson people that you can do it here. I have always had great respect for Coach Ford. He's always gone above and beyond to help our program."

FORD'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Led Clemson to a 96-29-4 overall record in 11 full seasons as head coach. His 76.0 winning percentage is second best in school history among coaches who served at least three seasons.
- Third-winningest active coach in college football on a percentage basis at the conclusion of the 1989 season.
- Guided Clemson to the 1981 national championship, the first team national title in any sport in Tiger history. He was just 33 when he won the title, still the youngest coach in college football history to win the national title.
- Led Clemson to six bowl wins in his Tiger career and never had a losing season in his 11 full years. Five of the bowl wins were over Hall of Fame coaches.
- Led Clemson to five ACC championships (1981, 1982, 1986, 1987, 1988), second most in school history behind Frank Howard.
- Coached Clemson to seven top-20 seasons, including three top-10 seasons. He led Clemson to top-20 final rankings in each of his last four years.
- Coached Clemson to an 87-25-4 record in the 1980s, the fifth-best overall record in college football for that decade based on winning percentage (76.7). Clemson trailed only Nebraska, Miami (Fla.), Brigham Young and Oklahoma for the decade.
- Had a 21-7-1 record against coaches now in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- Eleven of his former players won 13 Super Bowl championship rings.

STEVE FULLER

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Every once in awhile a truly well-rounded individual comes along.

Steve Fuller was a scholar, an athlete and a fine representative of his community. That combination made him one of the most decorated athletes in school history and the reason he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was also the first Tiger football player in history to have his jersey number (#4) retired.

Fuller, a native of nearby Spartanburg, S.C., graduated from high school with a perfect 4.0 GPA in a class of more than 800, crowning him class valedictorian. He had offers to play professional baseball out of high school and had basketball scholarship offers from Division I schools as well.

Right away, Fuller produced a preview of what Tiger fans should expect from him over the course of the next four seasons. He was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week in his first collegiate game, gaining 194 yards of total offense against Tulane. During his sophomore season, Fuller gained further recognition by being named ACC Back-of-the-Week after the Tennessee game. He was also named to the All-ACC Academic Team in 1976.

Fuller demonstrated exceptional leadership during his junior and senior years, both on and off the field. Highlights on the field include leading the ACC in total offense for both years and being selected twice as the ACC Player-of-the-Year, the only two-time selection in Clemson history.

Equally impressive were the team accomplishments, as Fuller quarterbacked Clemson to two consecutive Gator Bowls, the Tigers' first bowl appearances in 18 seasons. In 1978, Clemson posted an 11-1 record and ranked No. 6 in the final AP poll, then the highest final national ranking in Tiger history.

Fuller earned the Gator Bowl MVP honors during his senior season (1978). He was the South Carolina Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year during his junior season. The Atlanta Touchdown Club named Fuller the back-of-the-year in the South in 1978, and he was also named the South Carolina Player-of-the-Year during his junior and senior seasons.

At the conclusion of his senior season, he was also an AP Third-Team All-American. Another great athletic feat for Fuller included finishing sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish for a Tiger in history. Likewise, he set several Clemson records. It is no wonder he was a first-round draft pick (No. 23 overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs.

He played 10 years in the NFL and won a Super Bowl championship ring with the Chicago Bears in 1985.

Off the field, Fuller illustrated his joint dedication to academics and community service. He was named to the All-ACC Academic Team for three years and twice named an Academic All-American, including a first-team selection during his senior season.

Fuller is one of just three football players in Clemson history to be named an on-field All-American and Academic All-American in the same season. He majored in history (pre-law), which was not an easy route to take, and had a 3.93 GPA. Fuller's constant push for excellence earned him an NCAA postgraduate scholarship, the Jim Weaver Award from the ACC and one of the NCAA's Top Five Awards. Fuller delivered the acceptance response for himself and the four other winners.

Fuller was also presented with the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award, a double that only Kyle Young has accomplished since. His extracurricular activities included being a member of the Blue Key, Mortar Board, Tiger Brotherhood, Block C Club, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi.

Fuller's honors may have collected dust once he left Clemson, but his fame did not. In 1979, he became the first football player and the second athlete in Clemson history to have his jersey (#4) retired. He also became a member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame.

In September 1994, Fuller was inducted into Clemson's Ring of Honor along with legendary Head Coach Frank Howard and all-purpose back Banks McFadden.

Clemson bestowed another honor upon the former Tiger quarterback great. On April 6, 1996, the Clemson Centennial team was announced, and Fuller was the starting quarterback on this team. In 2002, he was named one of the 50 greatest players of the ACC's first 50 years.

He left behind a legacy that few can dare to touch. No doubt, Fuller remains one of the greatest student-athletes in Tiger history, regardless of sport.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

An era at Clemson University ended June 30, 1974, when Frank Howard officially retired from the payroll.

Another era ended Jan. 26, 1996, when Howard died at the age of 86 and forever silenced a voice that had been synonymous with Clemson for nearly 65 years. He was the school's best-known ambassador.

Although he retired from all official duties in 1974, he never quit coming to the office and he never stopped representing Clemson in a manner which continued to win friends for the place that was so dear to his heart.

Howard retired from coaching Dec. 10, 1969 after 39 years on the Clemson coaching staff, 30 of which were as head coach. He was also athletic director during this time and he kept this position until Feb. 4, 1971, when he was named assistant to the vice president at the university, the post he held when the mandatory retirement age of 65 rolled around.

Shortly after his retirement the Clemson Board of Trustees named the playing surface of Memorial Stadium "Frank Howard Field" in honor of his long service to the university. It was only the third time that a building or installation had been named by the trustees for a living person. Over the years, Howard was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and the Clemson Hall of Fame (charter member in both), as well as the Helms Athletic Hall of Fame and the State of Alabama Hall of Fame.

On Dec. 5, 1989, he joined an elite group in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. The ceremonies took place in the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He joined former Clemson mentors John Heisman and Jess Neely in the membership.

Howard was also honored in December 1981, when he was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor, along with former Alabama Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and Tommy McDonald, a former Oklahoma star. In the summer of 1990, he was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame.

Howard stepped onto the rolling hills of Clemson in 1931 fresh from the varsity football ranks at the University of Alabama where he was a first stringer on Wallace Wade's 1930 team that drubbed Washington State 24-0 in the 1931 Rose Bowl. Howard was known as the "Little Giant" of the Tide's "Herd of Red Elephants."

The bald veteran came to his first coaching post under Jess Neely as a line tutor.

"At least that was my title," Howard recalled. "Actually, I also coached track, was ticket manager, recruited players and had charge of football equipment. In my spare time, I cut grass, lined tennis courts and operated the canteen while the regular man was out to lunch."

Howard was not only track coach from 1931-39, he served as baseball coach in 1943, and his 12-3 record that year is still among the best percentages for a season in Clemson history.

Howard held the line coaching post until Neely went to Rice as head coach in 1940. When the Clemson athletic council met to name a successor to Neely, Professor Sam Rhodes, a council member, nominated Howard to be the new head coach.

Howard, standing in the back of the room listening to the discussion, said, "I second the nomination."

He got the job and never left. When he retired as head coach following the 1969 season, he was the nation's dean of coaches, having been a head football coach at a major institution longer than anyone else in the United States. When he retired, he was one of five active coaches with 150 or more victories.

While line coach in 1939, the Tigers' record (8-1) was good enough to merit a trip to Dallas where Clemson met undefeated Boston College under the late Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The 1948 mark of 10-0 carried Clemson to the 1949 Gator Bowl, and two years later, a 9-0-1 record sent the Tigers to Miami's Orange Bowl (1950).

The Country Gentlemen were champions on their first three bowl ventures. Boston College fell 6-3, Missouri was nipped in the Gator 24-23 (Howard said that was the best football game he ever witnessed) and Miami (Fla.) fell to the Tigers 15-14. The total point spread in these three bowl wins was five points.

The Gator Bowl beckoned the Tigers again in January 1952, and by being the conference champion in 1956, Clemson played in the 1957 Orange Bowl again. The Hurricanes downed Clemson 14-0 in the second Gator Bowl trip and Colorado led Clemson 20-0, then trailed 21-20 before finally defeating the Tigers 27-21 in the second Orange Bowl. The Tigers then played in the 1959 Sugar Bowl and held top-ranked LSU to a standstill before losing 7-0.

The invitation to play in the first Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, Texas in December 1959 was the eighth bowl that Howard had been a part of either as a player, assistant or head coach. It was the seventh bowl trip for a Tiger team and the sixth in a span of 12 years. Howard said that Clemson's 23-7 triumph over No. 7 TCU in the Bluebonnet Bowl was the best performance he had ever witnessed by a Clemson team. The Tigers were the first school to play in two bowls in the same calendar year.

The Tigers' victory over the Horned Frogs was their fourth success in seven postseason appearances. In all seven, Clemson was the established underdog.

Howard served on the coaching staff of the Blue-Gray game in Montgomery, Ala. in 1941, 1952, 1959 and 1966. He was on the East staff of the annual East-West Game in San Francisco, Calif. in December 1960, and again in December 1962. Howard was named coach of the South squad in Miami's 1961 and 1969 North-South game. He coached in the 1970 Hula Bowl, which was his ninth postseason all-star game. While still in active coaching Howard served as one of the rules committee members for a period of three years.

A single-wing expert for 22 seasons (including nine as a line coach), Howard changed to the T-formation and its many variations in 1953. Still another major change in the offense was installed in 1965 with the "I" and pro-type set. In his 13 seasons as head coach using the single wing, Clemson won 69, lost 47 and tied seven. In 12 years of "T" teams, the Tigers won 71, lost 47 and tied four. While using the "I" in his last five years of coaching, Clemson had a 25-24-1 record.

In his 30 years of coaching, Howard won 165 games, lost 118 and tied 12. That victory total is still among the top-40 coaches in the history of the game.

In addition to heading up the Clemson football program, Howard also had the job of directing Clemson's entire athletic program, and at the same time raising all the required scholarship funds. The Tiger athletic department was always on a sound financial footing under the guidance of Howard.

The year 1958 was a red-letter one for Howard. During halftime of the Spring Game, Howard, his staff and secretaries were given an appreciation day. Howard received a 1958 car while other staff members were presented gifts. That summer, Howard and three members of his staff were given a trip to Europe by the United States Department of Defense to conduct clinics for the Armed Forces in Germany.

Then came the football season and the Tigers presented Howard with an 8-2 season, which led to a Sugar Bowl invitation. One of these 1958 victories was the 100th of Howard's head-coaching career. That came against the late Jim Tatum of North Carolina, a coach Howard had never beaten. And, the Tigers had to come from behind three times to win 26-21.

Howard was named Southern Conference Coach-of-the-Year in 1948. In 1959 he was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year and was awarded the honor again in 1966. His teams won ACC championships six times (1956, 58, 59, 65-67) in the first 15 years of the conference. The Tigers were co-champions in 1965. He guided Clemson to the Southern Conference crown in 1940 and 1948 as well.

Howard was born at Barlow Bend, Ala. (three "wagon greasins" from Mobile) on March 25, 1909. He spent his early days on the farm playing mostly cow-pasture baseball because there were not enough boys around the community for a football team. Howard says he left Barlow Bend walking barefoot on a barbed wire fence with a wildcat under each arm.

He graduated from Murphy High School in Mobile, where he played football, baseball and basketball and served as president of both the junior and senior classes.

After finishing at Murphy High School, Howard entered Alabama on an academic scholarship provided by The Birmingham News in the fall of 1927, and the 185-pounder played reserve guard during his sophomore year. As a junior, he started every game but two, as an ankle injury sidelined him for the two games he missed. Again during his senior year, he was a regular.

Howard was president of the freshman class at Alabama, was member of Blue Key and president of the "A" Club.

After coming to Clemson, Howard married the former Anna Tribble of Anderson, S.C. (who died May 15, 1996) on Aug. 23, 1933. They were the parents of a daughter, Alice (Mrs. Robert McClure of Gastonia, N.C.) and a son, Jimmy (Pendleton, S.C.). The Howards had three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Jimmy followed in his father's footsteps as a football player, only at a different position. The son was regular fullback on the local high school (D.W. Daniel High School) team for three years and was a halfback-fullback for three years on the Tiger varsity squad. Jimmy gained over 1,400 yards as a senior in high school and scored over 100 points. He graduated from Clemson in June 1964 with honors and earned his master's degree in horticulture from Clemson in 1967. He retired as a district entomologist with the Plant Pest Regulatory Service at Clemson.

For over three decades, Howard was in great demand both as a banquet speaker and clinic lecturer. Few states have escaped his homespun oratory, which brought the house down on many occasions.

After his retirement, Howard was active in other endeavors. He served as state chairman of the South Carolina Heart Fund drive, was roasted several times on behalf of the Multiple Sclerosis Society and was active in selling the Kickoff Publication out of Knoxville, Tenn.

Howard kept his hands in football, as he served as chief recruiter for the Gray squad in the annual Blue-Gray game. The Blue squad recruiter was Don Faurot, who opposed him in the 1949 Gator Bowl.

Howard was also inducted into the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame in San Francisco, Calif., is an honorary member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a member of the hall of fame of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. Clemson University also honored Howard once more with the presentation of the Clemson Medallion, which is the highest public honor bestowed by the university to a living person who exemplifies the dedication and foresight of its founders. Howard was a charter member of the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium in 1994 as well.

TERRY KINARD

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Terry Kinard is the most decorated football player in Clemson history. Those honors grew in 2001 when he is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Clemson Ring of Honor.

Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2001 at the annual National Football Foundation ceremonies in New York City. He was also honored at the College Football Hall of Fame in August 2002.

Kinard, who played for the Tigers from 1979-82 and was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports as a senior, was just the second Tiger in history to be honored by the College Football Hall of Fame and the first since Banks McFadden in 1959.

Ironically, Kinard burst on the national scene at Notre Dame in 1979. Starting as a freshman, Kinard had two fourth-quarter interceptions and seven tackles overall to lead Clemson to a 16-10 victory over the Fighting Irish. Twenty-two years later, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, which is located just two miles from Notre Dame Stadium.

"This is a dream come true," stated Kinard. "It is something you don't expect, but when it does happen, you are thrilled. It is a great honor when you consider that only one other Clemson player has been named to the Hall of Fame. To be alongside a legend like Banks McFadden means a great deal to me.

"Clemson gave me the opportunity. I was very fortunate. I could not have picked a better place to go to school. I played with a lot of great players at Clemson, especially guys on our defense like Jeff Davis, Jeff Bryant and many others. I certainly could not have made it to the Hall of Fame without the great players we had at that time."

"I also have to thank Coach (Danny) Ford and the other coaches. I especially have to thank Coach Willie Anderson, who recruited me. Years later, he gave me the opportunity to go to Oklahoma and serve on his (high school) coaching staff. He impressed upon me the importance of finishing my degree, which I did (from Langston University in Oklahoma). It has made a world of difference. I am sure it made a difference in me getting into the Hall of Fame. He cared about me many years after I left Clemson and it says a lot about him and the people at Clemson."

A native of Sumter, S.C., Kinard was an AP First-Team All-American in 1981 and 1982, the only two-time AP First-Team All-American in school history. He was in fact a unanimous selection in 1982, one of the only unanimous first-team All-Americans in Tiger history.

Kinard recorded 17 interceptions during his Clemson career, still the high mark in school history and second in ACC history. He was in the top 15 in the nation in interceptions in 1981 and 1982, and he was a major reason Clemson had a combined record of 21-1-1 during those two years. Clemson's defense finished in the top 10 in the nation in scoring defense each year. He was Clemson's second leading tackler on the 1981 national championship team and led the 1982 squad that finished eighth in the AP poll.

At the conclusion of his Clemson career in 1982, Kinard was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft by the New York Giants, as he was the No. 10 overall pick of the draft. He played seven years for the Giants, including in the team's 1986 Super Bowl championship season. Kinard was named to the NFL All-Rookie team in 1983 and the Pro Bowl in 1988 as well.

Since his retirement from football, Kinard was named to Sports Illustrated's All-Century team of college football. In 2000, he was named Clemson's top player of the 20th Century by Sports Illustrated. He was also chosen to the USA Today All-Decade team for the 1980s.

In 1996, Kinard was named to Clemson's Centennial Team and received more votes than any other defensive player. In 2003, he was named one of the 50-greatest male athletes in ACC history and was also named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team.

"Terry Kinard was a dominating player because he was a great tackler who also could break on the ball and make the interception," said Ford, who was Kinard's head coach during his entire career at Clemson. "I haven't seen a player who could dominate a game from the secondary like he could. He covered a lot of ground and made a coach feel secure about the secondary.

"He had the ability to be a dominant player from the time he was a freshman. You don't see a lot of freshmen safeties take over a game in Notre Dame Stadium, but he did that when we defeated Notre Dame in 1979."

"When you look at what Kinard accomplished individually at Clemson and what Clemson did as a team during his career, you can see that he is most qualified to be in the College Football Hall of Fame."

LEVON KIRKLAND

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

For the first time since 2001, an addition is being made to the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium. Levon Kirkland joined former Tigers Banks McFadden, Steve Fuller, Jeff Davis, Fred Cone, Jerry Butler and Terry Kinard, former Head Coaches Frank Howard and Danny Ford and former Sports Information Director Bob Bradley on the façade of the North upper deck.

It is an illustrious group of men who have made a significant contribution to the heritage of Clemson football from an individual and team standpoint.

Each person in the Clemson Ring of Honor has his or her own story, but some of them have a common denominator. Many reached greatness after coming to Clemson without a lot of fanfare.

Cone never played high school football and came to Clemson in 1947 as a walk-on because Howard's sister thought he looked athletic diving off a diving board into a neighbor's pool. Butler came to Clemson for track.

Kirkland, who never earned more than honorable mention all-state honors as a high school football player from Lamar, S.C., received Clemson's highest athletic honor.

"I really got discovered because some recruiters were coming to see players on an opposing team during my junior year. I had a good game with a couple of sacks, and I started to get some letters."

The notices came from Clemson and South Carolina for the most part. He did get scholarship offers from South Carolina State and App State, but that was it.

Fortunately for Clemson, former Linebackers Coach Miles Aldridge saw something in Kirkland.

"Coach Aldridge was my recruiter and did a great job keeping up with me. He never gave me lines about starting right away. He was honest, and I liked that."

Kirkland did not see the field when he came to Clemson for the 1987 season.

"The coaches thought I needed to mature physically, and they were right. I had a good attitude about it."

Looking back, it was the smart thing to do. By red-shirting, he traded what would have been a small role on the 1987 team for an All-America season in 1991.

By 1988, Kirkland was ready. In the season's sixth game, he made some big plays in a 49-17 win over a Duke team coached by Steve Spurrier.

"I had a strip sack that was a big play in the game and had another big play in the second half. That game gave me a lot of confidence."

Late in the year, Kirkland finished with a career-high 13 tackles, three tackles for loss, a sack and an interception in the ACC-title-clinching-win at Maryland.

More standout contests continued in 1989, including the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia when Kirkland was the MVP.

"We went to a press conference before that game, and I saw the MVP trophy. Wow, that was a big trophy. I had a goal to win that."

In 1990, Kirkland was the only underclassman finalist for the Butkus Award, and he was an All-American in 1991 as well. He finished his career with 40 tackles for loss and 19 sacks among his 273 tackles.

There were a lot of accolades for Kirkland, but what he remembers most is the camaraderie with his teammates, especially fellow defensive ends John Johnson, Wayne Simmons and Ashley Sheppard. They were as fierce a group as Clemson's four defensive linemen from the 2018 national championship squad.

"We had so much fun together. We were all so unselfish. Tommy West (his position coach) used to let us sub on our own. It didn't matter. If one of us got hot with a sack or tackle for loss, we stayed in the game. Other than that, we subbed every two series."

In his career, the Tigers won the ACC championship twice, had four top-20 seasons and posted a 39-8-1 record.

That success led to an NFL All-Pro career for Kirkland, who was named to the NFL's All-Decade team of the 1990s. In all, he played 176 career regular-season games and 13 playoff contests. He totaled 1,023 tackles, 19.5 sacks and 16 caused fumbles in 11 seasons.

His late wife, Keisha, who died of cancer at the age of 41 in 2013, had so much to do with that success in the NFL.

"I only had her for 11 years and miss her every day. She was such an inspiration the way she fought cancer. She was the person who got me to go back to Clemson and finish my degree (in 2004) after I finished my NFL career."

"I would not receive this Ring of Honor induction today without her."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER & CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBER

Banks McFadden was Clemson's greatest athlete in history. Few schools can make such a bold, definitive statement about one of its former athletes, but few Clemson fans would argue. McFadden passed away at age 88 on June 4, 2005 after battling lung cancer.

McFadden was a standout at Clemson in football, basketball and track & field, earning three letters in each sport from 1936-40. He earned All-America honors in both basketball (1938-39) and football (1939), and he was named the nation's "Most Versatile Athlete" in 1939. He is one of just eight athletes in Division I history to be named an All-American in football and basketball over a career.

On the gridiron, McFadden was a triple-threat player, leading the Tigers to a 9-1 record and Clemson's first-ever bowl game in 1939. With McFadden batting down four passes in the second half and averaging 44 yards on 11 punts, the Tigers defeated a Frank Leahy-coached Boston College team 6-3 in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

McFadden held the Clemson single-season punting record (43.5 in 1939) for 40 years, and his 22 punts of 50+ yards in 1939 still stand as a Tiger single-season record. At the conclusion of his career, he was a first-round draft pick of the Brooklyn Dodgers of the NFL, the No. 4 selection of the draft. It is still tied for the highest NFL draft selection in Clemson history. He played one year in the NFL with the Dodgers and led the NFL in yards per carry before returning to Clemson.

In 1959, McFadden became the first Clemson football player inducted into the prestigious College Football Hall of Fame.

On the hardwood, McFadden led Clemson to the 1939 Southern Conference Tournament title, the only postseason tournament title in Tiger basketball history. The center was Clemson's top scorer each season and finished his career with a then-Tiger record 810 points.

In track & field, McFadden won three events in the state track meet in one afternoon, setting state records in all three of them. Earlier in the same year, he placed first in five events in a dual meet, scoring 25 points while the opposing team's score was just 28 points. During his senior year, he also pitched in one game for the Clemson baseball team.

After coaching Clemson's defensive backs under second-year Head Coach Frank Howard in 1941, McFadden joined the Army Air Corps and spent four years in North Africa and Italy. He was discharged as a colonel.

McFadden came back to Clemson after his service and was again the secondary coach, this time for four seasons (1946-49). He then took over as head freshman football coach for five years before returning to coach defensive backs in 1955, a spot he held until Howard retired following the 1969 season.

Besides his football coaching years, McFadden also put in a stint as varsity track coach, freshman basketball coach and for 10 years (1946-47 through 1955-56) was Clemson's head basketball coach. From 1947-48 through 1951-52, Clemson improved its conference victory total each year, the first coach in the history of college basketball to realize a conference victory improvement five consecutive years. The streak was culminated with an 11-4 Southern Conference record during the 1951-52 season.

After Howard resigned as head football coach in 1969, McFadden took over the university's intramural department, which he directed for 15 years.

McFadden came to Clemson in a 6'3" frame and skinny 165 pounds. According to former Clemson Sports Information Director Bob Bradley, Howard said, "If McFadden drank a can of tomato juice, they could have used him as a thermometer."

Howard was an assistant coach under Jess Neely when McFadden came to Clemson in 1936.

"I can remember the first time I saw him on the practice field," recalled Howard, who died in 1996. "He looked like one of those whooping cranes. I thought sure as the devil that Coach (Jess) Neely had made a mistake by giving this boy a scholarship. But he proved me wrong."

McFadden was granted a long list of honors throughout his career. In 1966, he was presented with Clemson University's Distinguished Alumni Award. He was a charter member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 1987, both his uniform number in basketball (#23) and uniform number in football (#66) were retired by Clemson University. In 1994, he was inducted as a charter member of the Clemson Ring of Honor at Memorial Stadium.

Of all of the honors he received as an athlete, he told Bradley that the 1939 football team MVP award was his highest honor.

"To me, when your teammates vote you something, then you feel pretty good. That award meant more than anything else (to me)."

McFadden is the only Clemson athlete in history to have both his football jersey number and basketball jersey numbers retired. In 1995, the Banks McFadden Building adjacent to Jervy Athletic Center was dedicated in his honor.

McFadden was married to the former "Aggie" Riggsby of Manning, S.C. for 55 years prior to her death in 2001. McFadden and his wife had four daughters, Lil, Patsy, Marcia and Jan.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER

A name synonymous with not only the early years of Clemson football but the collegiate game is John Heisman.

A stern disciplinarian, he expected his players to be of high character and performance both on the football field and in the classroom.

Heisman coached the Tigers from 1900-03 and was responsible for putting the Clemson name among the annals of the great early collegiate teams.

Heisman was brought to Clemson by a professor and later university president, Walter Riggs. In the spring of 1894, Riggs was a graduate manager for the Auburn football team, and he was responsible for finding a coach for the 1895 season. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams of Penn, captain of the 1894 football team, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Penn player, and his coach at Oberlin a few years earlier.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was engaged in raising tomatoes. Having sunk about all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to go back to his old love of football and he readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year. Riggs later was hired as a professor at Clemson and he hired Heisman at Clemson in 1900. (Riggs started the Clemson football program in 1896 and was head coach in 1896,99).

Heisman began his coaching career at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years in the profession. His career included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Penn, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

He invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass and originated the center snap and the word "hike" (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Tiger baseball coach between 1901-03.

Clemson was a powerhouse program during his tenure and was a most feared opponent. His secret was that he depended on smart, quick players rather than large size and brawn.

William Heisman, a nephew of John Heisman, often told a story on how his famous uncle stressed academics.

"I remember a story Coach Heisman used to tell me about this famous football player he confronted in the locker room before a big game. My uncle came busting through the door and went over to this guy and said, 'You can't play today because you haven't got your grades up to par.' The player looked up at my uncle and said, 'Coach, don't you know that the sportswriters call this toe on my right foot the million-dollar toe?' My uncle snapped back right quick and said, 'What good is it if you only have a fifteen-cent head?'"

Another favorite Heisman story was the speech he used to make before a season began. Heisman would face his recruits holding a football. "What is it?" he would sharply ask. Then he would tell his players, "a football is a prolate spheroid, an elongated sphere - in which the outer leather casing is drawn up tightly over a somewhat smaller rubber tubing." After a long pause he would say, "better to have died as a small boy than to fumble this football."

Heisman broke down football into these percentages: talent - 25 percent, mentality - 20 percent, aggressiveness - 20 percent, speed - 20 percent and weight - 15 percent. He considered coaching as being a master-commanding, even dictatorial.

"He has no time to say 'please' or 'mister', and he must be occasionally severe, arbitrary and something of a czar."

On Nov. 29, 1900, Clemson defeated Alabama 35-0, which allowed Heisman's team to finish the season undefeated with a 6-0 record. This was Clemson's first undefeated team and was the only team to win all of its games in a season until the 1948 squad went 11-0. The Tigers only allowed two touchdowns during the entire 1900 season.

Clemson opened the 1901 season with a 122-0 win over Guilford. The Tigers averaged 30 yards per play and a touchdown every minute and 26 seconds. The first half lasted 20 minutes, while the second half lasted only 10 minutes. Legend has it that every man on the team scored a touchdown in this game.

In his third season, on Nov. 27, 1902, Clemson played in the snow for the first time in a game against Tennessee. The Tigers won the game 11-0 and claimed the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association crown. (This early conference had several southern colleges and universities as members.)

In his final season in 1903, Clemson defeated Georgia Tech 73-0 on Oct. 17. Clemson rushed the ball 55 times for 615 yards, while the Yellow Jackets ran the ball 35 times and collected just 28 yards. The second half was shortened to 15 minutes.

On Nov. 24, 1903, Clemson participated in its "First Bowl Game." Clemson and Cumberland met on this date for the "Championship of the South." The contract for the game was drawn up two weeks before the game was to be played. Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. Clemson was considered to be the best team in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

The game was played at a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. John Maxwell scored as a result of a 100-yard kickoff return. After the news came back to Clemson that the game ended in a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Heisman's 19-3-2 record in Tigertown is still the best in Clemson history on a percentage basis. The man who is honored each year with the awarding of the Heisman Trophy holds the distinction of building the early foundation of Clemson's football tradition.

A play documenting his career at Clemson was performed on campus in the fall of 2003.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBER

Perhaps one of Clemson's most beloved coaches was Jess Neely.

Neely's influence and inspiration is still present today as the IPTAY Scholarship Club was founded during his coaching tenure. IPTAY is the lifeblood of the Clemson Athletic Department. It provides funds for athletic scholarships and capital improvements.

Thousands of athletes have benefitted through the IPTAY Scholarship fund since its inception in 1934. That first year of IPTAY, Neely and his staff convinced 160 people to pay $10.00 a year to Clemson, for a grand total of $1,600 (not bad during the middle of the Great Depression).

Neely was head coach at Clemson from 1931 through 1939 and spent the next 26 years at Rice.

Neely coached Clemson to its first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where the Tigers capped a 9-1-0 season by beating Boston College 6-3. Clemson ended the season ranked No. 12 in the AP poll, its first top 20 season in history.

Boston College was ranked No. 11 and it was Clemson's first win over a top-20 team in its history. The team featured the play of Banks McFadden Clemson's first AP All-American. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely coached Rice to four Southwest Conference championships and six bowl appearances, the last being a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1961.

During 40 years of college coaching he compiled a record of 207-99-14. For his accomplishments, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

Neely graduated from Vanderbilt in 1924 after lettering three years in football and serving as captain of the 1922 football team. He coached a year of high school football before returning to his alma mater to obtain a law degree. But he never practiced law.

He coached four years at Southwestern College in Clarksville, Tenn. and then went to Alabama in 1928. It was there that he met Frank Howard. Neely brought Howard to Clemson as line coach in 1931. Howard replaced him in 1940 and remained as head coach for 30 years. In 1967, Neely returned to his alma mater as athletic director. He officially retired in 1971, but continued to coach golf at Vanderbilt until 1981, when he moved back to Texas.

"If I didn't look in the mirror every day, I wouldn't know how old I am," Neely once said. "Working with the boys makes you feel young, I feel that in athletics the boys learn a sense of loyalty and sacrifice and values they don't learn anywhere else.

"They learn to compete and that is what life is all about...it's competition.

"If they make good in football, chances are they'll be successful elsewhere. I like to see that those boys make something of themselves. That is my reward.

"The boys go to college to study and get that degree. Playing football is a side activity. When fellows go to a school first to play football they get an entirely wrong sense of values.

"And when you start them off with the wrong sense, it isn't difficult for them to go astray."

"He was a cool, southern gentleman, but he worked us like dogs," said Dick Maegle. "The workouts were always twice as hard as the games. There were no superstars, no victory that was better than all the other victories. To him, football was a team game and we were all team players."

Maegle was the player tackled in a famous episode in the 1954 Cotton Bowl, when frustrated Tommy Lewis of Alabama came off the bench to stop a certain touchdown. Rice won that game 28-6.

Neely died at the age of 85 in 1983, but his landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to the Tigers' outstanding football tradition.
